I will personally be quite surprised to find an obit for McGary in 1850. There will not be a death record either. There might possibly be a will or estate. There is an index for obits and other sources that I will check next week (after Aug 8) on my next trip to the archives.

Karin,
Thanks for your reply to my request for a look-up. I do not believe that you will find an obituary.....but, since you had a listing of a newspaper as early as 1844, I thought it might be worth a try. And, since he was so old in 1850 (98 years on the census) and a United Brethern minister, thought he might be get some mention in a paper at his death.
I know your offer is for a free look-up, but am certainly willing to pay you for your time if you so desire.
Thanks much,

Hi Mary,
You certainly responded quickly to my email. I was very pleasantly surprised. A real pleasure to talk with you. I too have found some questions on the GenForum's reliability. But it is all in the hands of the persons inputting the data.
I have Edward Monroe Popejoy and Martha "Patsey" McGarry on my list but nothing beyond her parents' names. [Is it McGarry or McGarey or McGary?]

You were quite fortunate to receive Jack's update. I thank you for volunteering to take the time to copy it for me.

John McGary married Francis (unknown), maybe McElroy, and had probable issue:

Jane married Frederick Troxel, 15 Oct 1807 (Jane's probate is dated 30 Dec 1836 in Fayette Co. OH. Mentions estate of grandfather McGary and her children, Lovina, Frances Jane, Sylvester and Oliver.....I do not have anything on this estate, but the abstract)

Frances "Fanny" married Platt Bayless, 1 Apr 1812. Have quite a bit of info on Fanny and Platt Bayless to Tippecanoe Co. IN.

Elizabeth "Betsey" married John Martin, 30 Jan 1812.....know nothing about them.

Martha "Patsey" McGary married Edward Popejoy 13 Jan 1814.....our line.

Isaac married #1 Eleanor Markland...to Texas.....and additional marriages.

The first four known children were married in Butler Co. OH. I have not found a marriage record for Isaac McGary to Eleanor Markland. Butler Co. OH deeds confirm that marriage, but date not known.
There may have been additional children, but I have no more names at this time.
Will get the Popejoy Up-date copied as soon as possible.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letter in which you request information in regard to Mrs. Martha McGarry Popejoy, who was granted pension on account of the service of her husband, Edward Popejoy, in the War of 1812.

The data which follow were obtained from papers for pension and bounty land on file under W. C. 5074, based upon the military service of Edward Popejoy in the War of 1812.

The date and place of birth of Edward Popejoy are not given, nor are the names of his parents shown.

Edward Popejoy volunteered in Middletown, Butler County, Ohio, April 27, 1812, served as private in Captain John Robison's company of Ohio militia, was taken prisoner, August 16, 1812, when General Hull surrendered to the British at Detroit, held until paroled September 20, 1812, and was discharged April 26, 1813.

He was allowed one hundred sixty acres of bounty land on his application executed November 20, 1850, at which time he was sixty-three years old, and a resident of Fayette County, Ohio.

Edward Popejoy married January 12 or 13, 1814, in Butler County, Ohio, Martha (Patsey) McCarey. The date and place of her birth, and names of parents are not given.

The soldier, Edward Popejoy, died July 9, 1854, in Jeffersonville, Fayette County, Ohio. It was stated, also, that he died July 10, 1864.

The widow, Martha Popejoy, was allowed pension on her application executed July 3, 1871, at which time she was seventy-six years old, and living in Fayette County, Ohio.

The papers on file in these claims contain no further discernible data relative to family.

In order to obtain the date of last payment of pension, name and address of person paid, and possibly the date of death of this widow, you should apply to The Comptroller General, General Accounting Office, Records Division, this city, and furnish the following data-

Martha Popejoy, widow of Edward Popejoy

GEORGE BENSON REBECCA (JEFFRIES) BENSON

George and Rebecca were married 11 Sept 1806. In 1809, Nelly Benston died and left 100 pounds to her grandson George, also she left 50 pounds to Elizabeth Wiley, her granddaughter. It was soon after this that the familys of George, and Elizabeth moved from Virginia to Jeffersonville Ohio.

Early records of Jeffersonville, Fayette Co. Ohio, show that George was on the board of Trustees, as he was most years thru 1836.He was a Justice of the Peace in 1837.

In 1823 on Dec. 8 Geo. and Rebecca bought land, 100 Acres, on Sugar Creek, from Elizabeth and William Wiley. It was here near Jeffersonville, that most of the children of Geo. and Rebecca grew up and married, staying in the area to raise their familys. Owning land and becoming prominent residents in the area.

George died in 1837, only a man of 47 years. Records of his Estate, and the sale of same are in this story. After the death of George, the widow Rebecca, was allowed to keep: 6 hogs value$18.00 1 Do value $8.00, 11 acres of corn, 24.00, and 1 sorrell mare value $50.00, for a total of $100.00. to support herself and children for 1 year.

Rebecca, widow of George was still selling land as late as 1851 when she sold someto William Fent for $160.00. Witness to this sale were F. Jayne Justice of Peace and Joseph Benson.

In the 1850 census Rebecca, is shown as 65 yrs. old living with her daughter Mary 42 yrs. old, with personal property worth $100.00. In 1860 Mary(Polly) insane is shown as living with the family of Jacob Creamer, who married Elizabeth Benson, sister to Mary. There is no mention of Rebecca, so she was probably dead.

DESIGNED BY LES. J. FAHY

Son of George B. and Josephine Benson, wasborn Oct. 6,1864,

When he was but a small boy, his Mother and Father joined a wagon train going to Oregon, taking with them,John M; Wm. Edward, and their sister Alevda Irene.

They most likely took the Oregon Trail. Anyway theyended up near Portland Oregon in a small town, called Corneilus, Oregon. They are shown on the 1870 Census of Washington County, Oregon. living near John Benson and his family. The age ofJohns children born in Oregon, leads us to believe,he was the reason George and Josephine brought their family to Oregon. John was an ~~brother~~ uncle to George.

We know nothing of their life in Oregon, but it was a frontier at that time, and I'll bet Wm. could have told some very interesting stories of their life there.

In 1876, when William, was 12 yrs. old , the family returned to Iowa. Living in another small village, Forest Home. Here Josie, had an Uncle John Farmer.

At an early age he learned to Barber. He was a man of many occupations. During his life he was a Barber, Clown with a traveling group, a magician, a musician, being able to play many instruments.

He loved horses,and owned some very showy ones, and a surrey with fringe on top. Had the first phonograph in the area, and ran the projector at the first movie house in Oskaloosa Iowa. Later he worked on the Chicago Quincy Railroad.

William Edward Benson was registered in the Book of Business Oskaloosa Iowa in 1892, as BARBER,working for J. E.Parks, and residing at 909 High Avenue West Oskaloosa, Iowa.

On Jan.3,1892 Wm. married Ettie Evans.of Rosehill Iowa. On Oct 7th of that same year thier first child, a daughter was born. Lois Irene. Then two years later ,Ettie gave birth to a son who they named Charles Christopher, born on April Fools day, April 1, 1894.

The 1900-01 Book of Business, lists Wm. and Ettie Benson as living at 511 North 4th Street, Oskaloosa Io. At this time Wm Edward, was a Piano and Organ Repair man.

Shortly after this they must have moved back to Forest Home, because my mother Marie Victoria Benson wasborn on March 13,1903, in Forest Home.

Marie was 11 years younger than her sister Lois,and it was not until Marie was about 10 yrs old that her parents seperated. they did not ever get a divorce. From this we know that they lived together 21 years.

William Edward Benson loved to garden, and raise chickens, had a small acreage, kept a cow and a horse. He lived in Forest Home, across the street from his Mother, until his death in 1930. He died of cancer of the bowel. William is buried in the old Forest Home Cemetery, next to his Mother and older brother John, also younger Brother George, who never married.

BENSON: Lois Irene, married James Van Winkle on July 10, 1912 in Iowa. To them were born the folling children.

(3) Mary Etta Van Winkle 3 Feb. 1920
Married Fred Stimle

(1) James Fredrick 8 June 1941

(2) Linda Joan 11 May 1942

(3) Dianne

BENSON: Charles Christopher Married Amelia Davis of Aurora Ill.
Married Louise Clemm 25 Dec 1929

No children to either marriage.

Charlie was a Chef in Aurora Ill. Worked for the C. B. & Q railroad, upholstering Pullman cars. Later he lived in Sandwich Illinois, where was the Chief of Police, until the time of his death.

Benson: Marie Victoria Married Willie Waldo Walker, and had 4 children. More of them later.

In searching for other items, I found this in the MONTEZUMA REPUBLICAN,Dec.11,1913 - page 1

JOHN BENSON DIES

Monday night at home of his mother in Forest Home, John BENSON died, following a week's illness from Typhoid fever. The deceased was about 60 years of age and has for some time made his home with his mother. He had been married, we understand, three times. The funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at Forest Home.

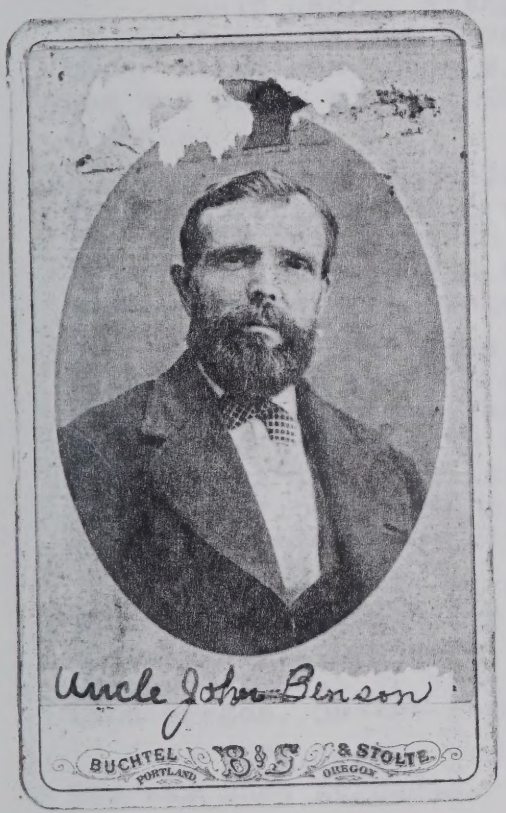
John M. BENSON was born November 30 1860 and died December 8, 1913 at age 53 years and 10 days. Deceased was born in Lucas County, Iowa and lived in Oregon for 11 years. Then returned to Iowa. He married 1 January 1888 to Ollie Slater of Tipton, Iowa. 3 children born to this union, 2 sons and 1 daughter - Everet, Earl and Ida June. Everet of Davenport was the only one of the children that could be in attendance at the funeral held in Forest Home December 10. Burial was in Forest Home Cemetery.



I've looked all over for the uncle John, that Josephine worked for after the death of her husband George Benson. Now I believe it was probably Uncle John Alexander Benson,who with his family lived in the state of Oregon, and are shown on the 1870 Census living near the family of George, and Josie.

This John A. was a brother of both Mathias and Creighton Benson. He was their youngest brother, and only 6 years older than George. John is listed as a merchant in the 1860 and 1870 Census, living in a small villaige of Forest Grove, Oregon.

The mystery of who killed Geo. still remains. It is said to be John Tuttle, a brother in law. But I have found no brother in law of that name.

GEORGE B. BENSON AND JOSEPHINE IRENE

George Benson was born 1840, Jeffersonville Ohio. Fayette Co. He was the fourth son of Mathias and Fanny (Popejoy) Benson. When he was only two years of age, his mother died.

Mathias, remarried in march of 1844, to Mary Trent, whose family was a neighbor. To this marraige were born three more children.

Josephine Irene Benson was born 1 Jan 1842 near Jamestown, Ohio. She was the second child of William Creighton and Eliza Jane (Farmer) Benson. Eliza Jane died about 1848, because Creighton married Susan Clark in Jan. of 1849.

The census of 1850, for Jefferson twp. Fayette Co. Ohio, shows both the Benson familys, living near each other, and both Mathias, and Creighton were farmers. George was 10 years old, and Josephine was 8.

According to " HISTORY OF POWESHIEK CO. IOWA" George and Josephine, were natives of Ohio. Josephine and her family, came to Lucas County,Ia. about 1854, where Creighton farmed for a time.

Cousin George either came to Iowa with the family, or came later, at any rate, he and Josephine were married,
Their first son, John M. was born Nov. 3 1860. On Oct. 6 1864 another son was born, William Edward Benson. This man was to become my Grandfather.

Soon George, and Josie with their two small sons joined a wagon train, to follow the Oregon Trail, and ended up at Cornelius Oregon. The family is listed in the 1870 Census, as living in the small village of Forest Grove,only a short distance from Cornelius. A daughter Alaveda Irene, was born in Oregon in 1865.

The trip from Iowa to Oregon in the 1860's was long and dangerous. Josephine, was to tell many tales, to grandchildren as the years went by. They traveled by covered wagon pulled by oxen. It is believed they took cattle and horses with them, along with some prized pieces of furniture. A granddaughter, Lillian Terrel Mc Neil, had a GRANNY ROCKER that had made the trip to Oregon and back. I have a small round top trunk, that was also on that journey.

Also living in Forest Grove, according to the 1870 census, was John Benson, 37 yrs. old and born in Ohio. John was a Merchant. He could have been an older brother to George, or a cousin. John, was also listed in the 1860 Census of Oregon. Josephine had a photo of John taken in Portland Oregon. On the back it says "Uncle John"

In 1874 George got into an arguement with a neighbor or a relative, and was shot to death, on 27 Sept.

The following information was told to me by Frank Wheeler Terrell, a great Grandson of George and Josephine.

His Father found in an old Newspaper, in the State Archives in Salem, an article, stating that George Benson had been shot by a man named Tuttle, over a dispute about Tuttles, cows getting into Bensons Orchard and eating the small fruit trees.

At this time I have not been able to find that article to verify The story.

Not long after this fatal shooting,Josephine, packed up her belongings, and with her 5 children returned to Iowa. At the time the eldest son John was only 16 yrs old and George Jr. who had been born after his fathers death, was less than a year old.

The following information, was gathered from a letter written to Josephine by an admirer, after her return to Iowa. The letter is dated, April 19 1876, and signed B. Martin.

It speaks of the Riverboat trip from Portland Oregon to Victoria Ore. where Josephine and her family transferred to an ocean going vessell, going To San Francisco Calif. It also mentions how Sea Sick Josephine was, so also must have been the children.

Mr. B. Martin, accompanied Josephine this far, and saw her and the children safely aboard a River Boat for Sacramento, where they were to take a train for Iowa.

In the letter, Mr Martin speaks of "your old home, Cornelius, Spencers Store, A T. Francis, another admirer, and a Mr. and Mrs. Tucker, who were friends.

On the long train ride, there was more excitement, Somewhere in Nebraska the Jessie James Gang stopped the train, and robbed it. When they came to Josephine, she was fiesty, and did not want to give up any of her meager possessions, so she told Jessie about the death of her Man, and that she was left with 5 children to raise. He gave her things back plus some of the money he had taken from other passengers. Wished her luck.

The Benson family came back to the small village of Forest Home Iowa. where her Uncle John Farmer, was part owner of a drygoods store. She help-in the store, raised a garden, had chickens and a cow. With the help of John, and William Edward, they were able to make a living. The eldest daughter, Alvalda Irena, went to live with a family by the name of Daniel Mc Kahan. She is listed in the 1880 Census as an adopted daughter.

Josephine is remenbered by a Great Niece Dortha (Fluke) Manny, as being a cute funny kid. When she came to visit my Grandmother Louisa, we all had a ball. Dortha, also gave me photos of Josephine and George taken shortly after their marraige. also photos of many family gatherings at Josephine's home in Forest Home. Josephine lived out her life in this small community, as did her sons John, Wm. Edward and George Jr. who never married.

MATHIAS BENSON (1810)

Mathias, was probably born in Va.,the third son of George and Rebecca BENSON. Soon after his birth, the family moved to Fayette County Ohio. There were 11 children in the family of George and Rebecca Benson.

In 1830, when Mathias was 20 years of age, he married FANNY POPEJOY, then only 15 years of age. Fanny was the daughter of EDWARD AND MARTHA POPEJOY.,neighbors of the BENSON family. The young couple were married Dec. 23, 1830.

The Ohio Census of 1840, lists Mathias, as a farmer. Mathias and Fanny were married 12 years, before she died in child birth. To them were born two sons, and two daughters. Fanny (Popejoy) Benson died on Feb. 2, 1842, at the age of 27. She is buried in Bighee Cem., Jefferson Twp. Ohio, two graves away from her parents Edward and Martha POPEJOY.

With four small children to raise, Mathias wasted little time and on March 3, 1844, he married Mary TRENT (FENT) the daughter of another neighbor. To this second marraige, were born three children, William Creighton, James, and Ellen, but only William Creighton, lived to adulthood. The babys died within two months of one another, probably from an epidemic. They are buried in Fairview Cem. Jeffersonville Ohio., along with their father Mathias, who died Oct. 6, 1866.

The marriages of Mathias, were found in EARLY MARRAIGES OF FAYETTE COUNTY OHIO.

HISTORY OF FAYETTE COUNTY, R. S. DILLS 1881
William C Benson, private, enlisted Nov. 19, 1861, in Co. C 60th Ohio Volunteer Infantry. (son of Mathias and Mary (Fent) Benson.

On Oct 30, 1883, Mathias Benson purchased land from Jacob Creamer and his wife Rebecca, for $250.00. Rebecca (Benson) Creamer was a sister to Mathias Benson.

Mathias owned many parcels of land over the years, as shown in records of Fayette Co. Ohio.

CENSUS 1840, shows Maithias Benson, neighbors, Edward Popejoy. also William Fent, who lived next door. also close by was the widow REBECCA BENSON, and her family of small children.

Mathias married Mary FENT in 1844, Mary was 15 years his junior.

INDEX TO THE 1856 SPECIAL STATE CENSUS OF FRANKLIN COUNTY, IOWA

By Margaret Foster

In 1856, only three townships had been formed in Franklin County. They were Washington, Morgan and Reeve; and they are so designated after each name listed here. Also listed is the age of the head of each household, his birthplace, household number, the page on which he appears in the census and an "O" if he owned his property. The names are not alphabetized strictly. If a person in a household had a different surname than the head of the household, he or she is listed in this index and his or her status indicated by a "W" (meaning "with") in the "Household" column alongside the number of the household in which he or she lived. Hopefully, this will be helpful in locating the children of earlier marriages.

ALDEN TOWNSHIP CEMETERY and ALDEN CEMETERY, Alden Township, Section 13

Alden Township Cemetery is located west of town of Alden in section 13 of Alden Township on a hill some 80 rods south of the Iowa River. From Iowa State Hwy 941, turn north into the town of Alden on Main St. Go 4 blocks to Pearl St. turn left, and go 1/3 mile. First burial was in 1853. This cemetery is also known as the Old Town Cemetery.

Alden Cemetery is located in Section 13 of Alden Township, the Alden Cemetery lies on the west edge of Alden about 80 rods above the Iowa River. From State Hwy 941 turn north into Alden on Main Street, At Pearl Street turn left and go about 1/4 mile. The cemetery will be on your right at the edge of town. The first death in Alden township was Mary Ann Meyer, daughter of William and Julia A. Meyer. No marker can be found but the older residents recall there was a marker beside her father, William Meyer who died in 1863.

The Alden Cemetery Association was formed in 1878 when they purchased the land adjoining the Alden township cemetery . Through the years several sections have been added with purchases of land from the Kemp Family, whose farm borders the cemetery.

Records compiled by Glenn & Sally Paul, Jessie & Julia Braga, John & Thersa Essig, Erma Heslop, Angie Peterson, Mrs. Everett Briese, Mrs Jon Silke, and Mr. & Mrs. John Kemp.

John I. Popejoy was a great-great grandfather of mine. The town of Popejoy was named after him. He was born in Jeffersonville, Fayette County, Ohio, February 10,1854. He married Frances Sophia Pearson Oct 24,1849. They purchased 640 acres of land in Franklin County Iowa. To this union were born Mary Elizabeth, Virginia Evangaline, Alvina Florence, Frances Jane (my great-grandmother), Edward Pearson, Ethel Adaline, and James Horace. I do not find an Edwin Popejoy Connor in my family history. You might check the Fairview Cemetery in Dows, Iowa. I found a lot of my ancestors buried there. Also check with the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) as my grandmother was a DAR and they had to research their family to join, which is why I have so much history with dates on my family. You may e-mail me if you have any other questions I can answer.

Pioneer Days and History of Iowa Falls by I.A. Nichols

Addison Wells went up the river prospecting in the fall of 1855 as far as Otis grove and came back down the north side of the river. In later years Mr. Wells said: "After traveling a few miles from Otisville I saw a man cutting hay with a scythe. I went up to him to inquire my way. He said his name was John I. Popejoy and he at once introduced me to his unbounded hospitality for which he afterwards became famous, insisting on my remaining over night at his house and there began a friendship which ended only with death."

If you were to drive to Popejoy from Iowa Falls and just before entering Popejoy would turn to the left on an angling road and proceed until you came to the timber, you would arrive a a great farm house., containing some 22 rooms, surrounded by numerous farm buildings. This was the home of John I. Popejoy. Here he came in 1854 and here he died in 1896. He was born in Ohio in 1824.

Mr. Popejoy was the "cattle king" of this part of Iowa. Decade after decade 300 to 500 head of his cattle fed on the prairies of southwest Franklin county in summer and fattened in his feed yards in winter. Each year he bought cattle in this and surrounding states. In 1868 he spent three months buying cattle in Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas and Texas, and drove home 400 head. In January 1873 he was feeding 250 head on 15-cent corn. In August 1873 he had 400 head of cattle grazing on the prairie and during this year he bought 1,200 acres of L.F. Wisner. Mr Popejoy eventually owened some four sections of land, 300 acres of which was timber, and at one time had some 1,000 acres fenced with board fencing. This was in the days before barb wire.

Mr Popejoy's father was a merchant in Fayette county, Ohio, but he failed in business and John was left on his own resources at the age of seventeen. He bought and sold cattle until 1854, when he came west to Warren couty, Iowa, where his father had preceded him. He went to Des Moines and entered 40 acres of land in southwest Franklin county. Then he drove to see his new piece of land, bought out a squatter, and added by purchase enought more land to increase his holding to 640 acres. This was in May 1854. In March 1855 he brought his family from Ohio to Iowa. They came with teams of horses on a flat boat down the Ohio river and up the Mississippi to Muscatine and from Muscatine by team to their new home at "Oak Grove" in southwest Franklin county, arriving in April 1855. There was no bridge, school house, or social organization in Franklin county, only 200 persons in the entire county. It was a long drive from Maynes grove across the trackless prairie to the John I Popejoy home, but no one ever left the Popejoy place hungry or cold.

Mr Popejoy was the first assessor and the first notary public in southwest Franklin. He served sixteen years on the board of supervisors of Franklin county, much of which time he was chairman of the board. He ran for the legislature in the 1880's and there were only a half dozen votes against him in Oakland and Morgan townships. The Hampton politicians bunched against him in favor of one of their own number and defeated him by a few votes. Mr Popejoy was a member of the commission that located the county seat of Hancock county.

When the B.C.R.& N. was extended northwest from Iowa Falls, a station was located in Oakland township and named Carleton in honor of J. J. Carleton. However, the name conflicted with Carrollton in Carroll county and caused a mixup with mail. The postoffice department required a change in name and so the new town was called Popejoy, in honor of John I. Popejoy who lived near by. Mr Popejoy organized and operated the Savings Exchange Bank of Popejoy. He was president. His son J.H. was vice-president and attorney, his son Edward was cashier, and his daughter Flora was bookkeeper.

In the Iowa Falls Sentinel we find this note written by Mr Popejoy:

Alden, Iowa, December 15, 1873
Friend Garrison:
I leave today in company with my wife for Jeffersonville, Ohio, my place of birth and residence for 26 years prior to coming to Iowa. Have a mother and only sister living there. I sold my real estate there, which was 50 acres, and, becoming captivated with Iowa Falls and the vicinity of Alden, invested the amount in land and settled in 1855. Iowa Falls was then in its infamcy, formerly designated as White & Talbott's paddle mill. I expect to return by January 1, 1874. Of course, we cannot leave Iowa long. We have tried it 18 years and are satisfied to remain.

In the June 9, 1880 issue of the Sentinel we find this notice: "Recently we passed by the farm of John I. Popejoy, the catle king, and observed that his new house, now being built, is an immense structure, standing in a beautiful natural grove of old oaks, commanding a fine view of his great farm of hundreds of acres. When this house is finshed it will look like an English castle; surrounded, as it is, by such fine scenery and natural growth of trees. May John and his estimable wife live long in the land to enjoy their richly earned competence and commodious house."

This mansion was complete in 1882 and cost ten thousand dollars, which was some money for those days. The cupola on top was fourteen feet square and glassed in to enable persons to sit and watch for prairie fires and locate the cattle grazing on the prairies. From this observatiory one could see over the surrounding woods, far away to Iowa Falls and Williams and for long distances up and down the railway. It was a long way from this mansion to the humble cabin in which the Popejoys began life in the 1850's. In 1884 Alden friends gave Mr. Popejoy a birthday party, the occasion being his sixtieth birthday. He was presented weth a gold-headed came.

John I Popejoy was married in Ohio in 1849 to Miss Frances Pearson, and to them were born seven children, two sons, Edward and John, and five daughters, Mrs. L. R. Forbes, Mrs. J. H. Golger, Mrs. Fa A. Thayer, Mrs. H. J. Eastman, and Flora. Mrs. Leona Davenport of Geneva, Iowa, is a granddaughter. Mrs. Davenport wirites to me:

I have heard my grandfather speak of the prairie fires, the logging bees, and the sugar making. They went to Cedar Falls to mill when they first came to their new home. It took a week to make a journey and they slept under their wagons at night.

Prairie chickens, wild ducks, and fish were plentiful, but guns and ammunation were expensive, so they used homemade traps. Their only source of fresh fruit was wild fruit, such as plums, berries, grapes, and crab apples. When folks went visiting, they took their bedding and their knives and forks with them and stayed several days.

The mail was brought on horseback by my grandfather or some of the neighbors. Whoever had to go for supplies brought the mail for the neighborhood.

My grandmother was interested in natural history and had in her parlor many specimens of minerals, skulls, and fossils.

Mrs John Paago of Clear Lake and Mrs. Ernest Durand of Dumont are also grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Popejoy.

Flora Popejoy, wife of Horance Popejoy, youngest son of John I., lived across the street from us at one time in Iowa Falls. She had a parrot that often broke up a strenuous day for me. The parrot would assemble all the dogs in the neighborhhod by whistling for them. When the dogs arrived on the scene, the parrot would yell out: Get out of here, G-- d-- you--!"

And this parrot, at this writing, is stil alive at Owatonna, Minnesota, in the home of John I Popejoy, grandson of John I. Popejoy of pioneer days.

Mr Popejoy was a Universalist in religion and helped organize the Universalist church in Iowa Falls. The church building is now used by the Catholics.

When John I. Popejoy died in 1896, St. Elmo Commandery Knights Templar ran a special train for the funeral at Alden where a large assemblage of people attended the services. J. H. Funk preached the funeral sermon. The body was laid to rest in the Alden cemetary.

1883 Franklin County, Iowa History
The settlement of Oakland Township first was 1853 by Sprague, Crawford and Michell who were trappers and hunters. Sprague made the first entry of land. John I. Popejoy came the next year, 1854 and entered 600 or 700 acres of land. In 1855 he came to remain a permanent resident. He first settled north of the Iowa River. When he came to Iowa the first time in 1854 he was accompanied by H. H. Pierson to the grove where H. C. Holmes had made a preemption of 160 acres. They stopped at a spring on the place, and soon heard someone coming, which proved to be two men carrying a gun and an axe. When meeting they were asked what they were doing here. Some sharp words followed, and the party tried to force Popejoy and Pierson away, but they did not purpose (propose) to be driven away, and after a few minutes a bargain was struck by which Popejoy bought them out for $50.00. He had the finest tract of timberland on the Iowa River, covered with Oak and Black Walnut. His first entry consisted of a mile square, to which he added from time to time, up to 1880 acres when he possessed 2860 acres in one body, 1000 in grass and the balance in timber and plowed land. In 1881 he built the largest and finest farm residence frame structure in a beautiful grove of oak trees about 30 rods from the east bank of the Iowa River over looking this famous valley, which in mid summer presents a charming landscape. (Note: This 24 room mansion burned in 1957). John I. Popejoy holds, by seniority of settlement, first rank in the pioneer element of Oakland Township. He made his first journey to Iowa in 1854, in quest of land and settled a location in Franklin County. The year following he moved his family hither, and the oft repeated but ever interesting tale of pioneer privations and struggles, forms a chapter in their history. In the land of marvelous progress and restlessness march of posterity is fast relegating the fathers with their matchless records, to the past. In the providence of County History to redeem their chronicles from oblivion, Mr. Popejoy was b. in Fayette County, Ohio, February 10, 1824. His father was a merchant, and at an early age of eight (8) he became an assistant in the store, acquiring a practical insight into all the details of local commerce. At a suitable age he was sent to Carey's Hill Seminary, in Cincinnati, where he took a thorough course in commercial study. He engaged in traffic in merchandising of various character, and also as a drover, taking cattle over the Alleghenies to eastern markets. In 1841 his father became security for a friend and thereby lost his property. Thus at the age of 17 Mr. Popejoy was forced to fend for himself. He determined to be fitted for emergencies and worked a year at shoe making. He next went into the grain and provision house at Chillicothe, Ohio and became a bookkeeper and retained is position until the death of his employer. Then he returned to the home of his youth and began to operate as formerly in stock buying and selling in eastern markets. This he continued until he settled in Iowa. He entered 640 acres of land to which he has added by purchase until his possession includes 4000 acres. Homesteaded estate embraces 2860 acres. 1000 to the cultivation of tame grass. He has from the first operated in stock and was one of the heaviest shippers in Franklin County. His herd ranges from 250 to 500 head, and annual shipping of hogs aggregate about $2890. Mr. Popejoy has always been prominent in public affairs and has represented his district in county board of supervision for 16 years; first assessor for Franklin County, and has been School Treasurer for 20 years; officiated as town clerk and trustee. He belongs to the Masonic Lodge at Iowa Falls; universalist in belief. He married November, 1849 to Frances Sophia Pearson of Ohio.

Subject:	Regarding Hensley Family from Iowa

Hi Mary,

I attached my new message to my old one only to keep track of my questions for you. I recently was very kindly given the care of some of the Hensley memorials at Exira Cemetery (same kind volunteer made many photos of the Hensley's this week). And I'm still trying to piece this family together. BTW... Thank you so much for all the information on the Popejoy family you've posted on findagrave. It's been very helpful!

I'm working from several different documents and trying to verify as I go. One such is the History of Shelby and Audubon Counties, Iowa. From this biographical sketch of John Jackson Hensley I did get his marriage to Martha Jane Popejoy and many, but not all of their children. I think they only listed those that were living in 1889 when this book went into publication. Also listed is Maria Eckles and her two children. No dates given for any of this, however, I was able to get the marriage dates, and as indicated below the two children they bore. So to my current question: I'm trying to clean up the findagrave memorials. It appears that their is some hybrid of Martha Popejoy/Richter at Exira listed along with your original Martha Jane Popejoy entry made for Avon. I'm pretty sure that the Martha A. Popejoy Hensley is actually Anna Maria Richter/Reichert Eckles Hensley. But I have no cross reference documentation for the birth and death dates. I guess the cemetery has kept some records of the burials, and I know that the information they had was only as good as their informant. The grave marker is M. A. Hensley.... and all the Hensley children who would have been living at the time of Anna Maria's death would have been those born to Martha Jane. Pretty easy to see how things could get mixed up. Have you done any research on the Richter/Hensley union? Any help you can offer would be greatly appreciated!

Thanks, Denise

I'm researching my great great grandmother's, Mary Ann Hensley Hayes, family. She was the daughter of John Jackson (JJ) and Martha Jane Popejoy (MJP) Hensley. This has been a surprisingly complicated family, and I'm having some challenges sorting out all the kids and wives of JJ.

From what I can find so far JJ and MJP had the following children (not limited to this list!):

Leroy M.
William
Morgan
Mary Ann (my great great grandmother)
Francis
Frank
John
Charles
Ina

(I think there may be others! These were listed in the Federal Census 1870... Note Martha is not listed but "Maria" is. The family is indexed as J. J. Hursly)

When MJP passed in 1869 (by the way, the Iowa Cemetery Records 1662-1999 lists her birthdate as 1850....I know that can't be right!), JJ m. Anna Maria (as best I can tell....her name is twisted in several records) Richter (Reichert) Eckles, widow of Reverend William Graham Eckles on 24 March 1870 (Iowa Marriages, 1809-1992) She brought to the marriage several children by Mr. Eckles. These children are listed in the Federal Census 1860 as Sarah, Margaret, Barbara, Emma, John, and Jacob. (also note NONE of her children are listed with JJ and Maria in the family in the 1870 census!) Where are her Eckles children!!?? Did she had them off to a relative when she married JJ?

JJ and Anna Maria had the following children:

Martha Ann
Agnes

I believe both of these girls passed in childhood. Can you tell me anything about this family? There are so many discrepancies in the records I've found, including two histories of Audubon County, Iowa. It has taken years to identify my great great grandmother's family, and now I'm in a mud pool trying to figure how to get out!!

Any assistance you can offer would be very much appreciated!

Thanks in advance and I look forward to hearing from you!

It would seem that Mary Ann Hensley is mystery person in many families! I can confirm this information about the Mary Ann Hensley in my family, but I don't think our MAH's are on in the same!

Our MAH was born in 8 July 1852 (we believe Ohio), and died 9 Oct 1880 Washington Township, Jasper County, Iowa. She is buried in the Vandalia Cemetery, Des Moines Township, Jasper County, IA (Sources: Jasper County Iowa Cemeteries, compiled by Jasper County Genealogical Society and Obituaries 1880-1890 from the Prairie City News files).

MAH m. Daniel Brown Hayes 25 Feb 1871 (Sources: Polk County Iowa Marriages 1867-1871, book B, page 23, and Marriage Register records from Polk County Courthouse, Des Moines, Iowa) The marriage license is witnessed by William Hensley.

From, my great grandmother, Martha Grace Hayes' SSN request card I have been able to trace her this far.

So, I know what I have, but cannot get any further back to definitely tie her to any other family. At one time I thought William was her father, but he may be her brother, or cousin??? And as I've found out, there are MANY Mary Ann Hensleys!

If your Hensley's are from Audubon County, Iowa, you might check out the biographical sketch of that county. There are several Hensley's listed there! Good Luck!!! My only help, I think is to eliminate one other possibility!

John ? Hensley and Martha Jane Popejoy

Poster: Janet Hensley Stashluk > ESTASHLUK@AUSTIN.RR.COM

I recently received a family tree that was done by my Grandfather John Jackson Hensley before he died 40+ years ago.

I don't know Grandfathers sources, but I have some detail information on some individuals that might interest you.

John S. Hensley -- Listed on my chart as John Jackson Hensley. Born 9/11/1819 in Chillicoth 0.,
Married Martha Jane Popejoy 9/5/1844. Died Dec 6, 1892 (Exira Ia).

Martha Jane Popejoy -- Listed by you as Martha J. Popejoy. Born 10/29/1828 in Fayette Co O. Married as above. Died 2/6/1869 (Avon Io). He notes that she is buried in Avon Iowa in "a country cemetary".

My chart shows their son Frank Maywood Hensley, my great Grandfather.

I have other detail on the following in her tree:

Martha Popejoy's ancestors:

Edward Popejoy, Martha McGary (McGarey), Lady Francis McElroy, and a little on Reverend John McGary (McGarey).

For John S Hensley (or John Jackson Hensley):
I have a father J. Hensley died 1821, and was in the War of 1812 in the Ohio Militia. I have a mother Sarah Wilfong, who died in 1823. (John would have been only a young child when his parents died by may dates.). I have Some information on Sarah's parents and grandparents.
If you had any other info on him, I'd be interested.

If you are interested in any of this, e-mail me and I'll type it and send it. Although I
